45 CFR Part 1607

Governing Bodies of Recipients

AGENCY: Legal Services Corporation.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule amends Part 1607 of the Legal Services Corporation regulations prescribing the requirements for recipients' governing bodies. The changes are made in response to new provisions contained in the continuing resolution appropriating funds for the Corporation during the 1983 fiscal year. The amendments provide new mechanisms and requirements for selection of attorney members of recipients' governing bodies.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 18, 1983.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary F. Wieseman (202) 272-4010.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On November 6, 1982, the Legal Services Corporation published on pages 50659-50660 of the Federal Register proposed amendments to Part 1607 of the Corporation's regulations and invited comments for 30 days ending December 6, 1982. These proposed amendments were published along with proposals to amend several other parts of the Legal Services Corporation regulations that were affected by provisions in the continuing resolution appropriating funding for the Corporation during the 1983 fiscal year. Of the more than 800 comments that were received, only a relatively small number addressed the proposed amendments to Part 1607. The great majority of those comments were supportive of the proposed changes, but almost uniformly, the comments from legal services programs, bar associations, and private attorneys stated that the time periods for compliance were unreasonably short. In addition, the comments received on Part 1607 generally addressed two other matters. They were overwhelmingly supportive of the provision requiring that attorney board members include women and minorities and reasonably reflect the population of the areas served. They also expressed concern that in areas served by many bar associations or where the leadership of bar associations was not supportive of the Legal Services Corporation Act, compliance with this Part would be difficult.

The Corporation's Board of Directors met on December 16-17, 1982, and approved final adoption of the proposed amendments with two modifications. The final amendments provide: (1) for an additional three months for coming into compliance with the new requirements of the regulations and (2) for similar additions to the time that may be granted for extensions of the compliance deadline. In addition, the final rule published herein corrects several errors in the dates that appeared in the published version of the proposed regulations.
